

- RI-2: To what extent is resistance to liberalism justified?
 2.1 appreciate Aboriginal contributions to the development of ideologies
 2.4 explore Aboriginal contributions to the development of liberalism

The Great Law of Peace: Another Source of Classical Liberalism?

1. Find examples within the document that correspond to the principles of liberalism.

Principle of Individualism or Collectivism	Example(s) from the Great Law of Peace
Rule of Law Individualism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No man was above the law</li> </ul>
Individual Rights and Freedoms Individualism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All members of society are subject</li> <li>No one may go past your rights &amp; freedoms.</li> </ul>
Private Property Individualism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Self Responsibility to maintain land</li> </ul>
Collective Responsibility Collectivism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Community should work together for a certain agreed on goal</li> </ul>
Public Property Collectivism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The public should benefit from shared property</li> </ul>
Collective Interest Collectivism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>When problems arise for one it should be common interest for others to help solve those issues.</li> </ul>

2. Provide a paragraph response to the following:
- To what extent does the Great Law of Peace align with the principles of liberalism?

The great law of peace is a more modern Liberal take of Classic Liberalism. More collective ideas (collective responsibility and collective interest)

Much of the information you need will be on P. 116 or @
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Great\_Law\_of\_Peace#Example\_articles